

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

SKYWEST PILOTS ALPA ORGANIZING
COMMITTEE, et al.,

No. C 07-02688 CRB

ORDER RE: SCHEDULING

Plaintiffs,

v.

SKYWEST AIRLINES, INC.,

Defendant.

The Court has received Plaintiffs' motion to change time. Regrettably, the Court cannot accommodate Plaintiffs' scheduling requests. Accordingly, Plaintiffs' motion to change time is hereby DENIED.

Several months ago, this Court scheduled trial proceedings to begin the week of June 11, 2007, in the case of United States v. Reyes, No. 06-0556 (N.D. Cal. filed June 20, 2006), which involves the first federal criminal prosecution of stock options backdating. Jury selection in that case will take place on Tuesday June 12, 2007, and Wednesday, June 13, 2007, and will involve approximately ninety prospective jurors. As jurors have been summoned, these proceedings cannot be rescheduled. Although the Court previously attempted to accommodate Plaintiffs' scheduling preferences, it regrets that it is unable to do so due to previously scheduled proceedings in the Reyes matter.

1 It would be possible for the Court to conduct a hearing as to Plaintiffs' motion for a
2 preliminary injunction on Thursday, June 7, 2007, at 9:30 a.m., or alternatively on Thursday,
3 June 14, 2007, at 9:30 a.m. The Court's view was that these dates imposed a greater burden
4 on Plaintiffs due to their various scheduling constraints than the date set by the Court in its
5 amended order.¹ If the parties can agree to hear the motion on either of these two alternative
6 dates, the Court will be pleased to sign a stipulated order moving the hearing. Otherwise, the 7 hearing will remain scheduled for June 11, 2007, at 9:30 a.m.

8 IT IS SO ORDERED.
